Ann Knaggs writes. I wonder if we have any new members of the Church who are new to the area. They may not know Driffield has many traditions – one being a free Afternoon Tea every year in early December. This year it is on the 1st and held in the West Building, Driffield School, 2pm to 5pm, with free raffle and entertainment. To qualify you have to be over 70 and live in the town or Little Driffield. This has been held for over 70 years. Anyone interested can see me (Ann Knaggs) or ring Les Pinkney (Chair) on 252393. There is also free transportation, thanks to the Round Table.

Margaret Trow writes. To all our friends at All Saints' and Little Driffield. Thank you so much for all the kind sympathetic messages and good wishes following David's death. I feel very humbled and grateful for the love and respect shown for David at his funeral. Thanks too, for the love and care extended to me while in hospital and also now I am home again. Thank you for your love and prayers. God bless you all. Margaret.
